

//////////////////// FESTIVAL PERFORMANCES //////////////////////

Performance underwriters receive recognition in print in the Festival Program Book and from the stage on the night of the performance. Performances are available to underwrite in part or in whole. Support commitments must be made by April 30 to meet print deadlines.

July 30 // Opening Night

The Festival begins with an evening featuring appearances by Festival stars including Artist-In-Residence Calvin Royal III, and in their return to Vail after almost a decade, New York City Ballet MOVES. The peerless company will open the Festival with Jerome Robbins' masterpiece Dances at a Gathering, embodying the spirit of reunion and renewal.

$45,000

July 31 // New York City Ballet MOVES

(underwriting is committed in full)

NYCB MOVES, the dynamic touring arm of the New York City Ballet, shares the company's incomparable repertory with audiences around the world. NYCB MOVES will present George Balanchine's expressive Sonatine set to music by Maurice Ravel, Jerome Robbins' timeless In the Night set to nocturnes by Frederick Chopin, and Alexei Ratmansky's acclaimed Pictures at an Exhibition to Modest Mussorgsky's extraordinary music of the same title.

$60,000

August 1 // UpClose: Artist-In-Residence Calvin Royal III

This first UpClose rehearsal-style performance for 2021 celebrates American Ballet Theatre principal dancer Calvin Royal III. Hosted by Artistic Director, Damian Woetzel, Royal will be joined by partners including Isabella Boylston, Unity Phelan, and Melissa Toogood, in repertory that will include works by George Balanchine, Merce Cunningham, and Christopher Wheeldon, as well as a first look at the new ballets being created for Royal this season by Tiler Peck and Jamar Roberts.

$30,000

August 2 // BalletX: Sunset, o639 Hours

(underwriting is committed in full)

Following a sold-out performance at the 2015 Festival, Sunset o639 Hours returns to Vail for one night only. This critically acclaimed story ballet transports audiences through a poignant narrative of loss, longing, and resolution, through extraordinary choreography by Matthew Neenan, and music performed live onstage by a cabaret-style band.

$40,000

August 4 // UpClose

In this rehearsal-style performance, audiences take a step into the dancers' worlds through a unique behind-the-scenes look at how they prepare for International Evenings and NOW: Premieres performances. UpClose is hosted by Artistic Director, Damian Woetzel and features Festival luminaries.

$30,000

August 5 // Dancing in the Park

(underwriting is committed in full)

The Festival welcomes Company-In-Residence BalletX to Avon for a free, family-friendly show on the outdoor stage of the Avon Performance Pavilion at Nottingham Park.

$25,000

August 6 & 7 // International Evenings of Dance I & II

A brilliant cast of dancers and musicians take the stage in these signature Festival performances. Celebrating artistic collaboration and innovation, these unique evenings feature new partnerships and role debuts by a selection of today's premier dancers.

$60,000 each

August 9 // NOW: Premieres

On closing night, the Festival will present an entire evening of new works choreographed by a selection of today's most inspiring creative voices including Lil Buck with Lauren Lovette, Michelle Dorrance, Justin Peck, Tiler Peck, Jamar Roberts, Cleo Parker Robinson, and James Whiteside, with new music composed by Christina Courtin, Rhiannon Giddens, Caroline Shaw, and Tyshawn Sorey, performed by musicians including Quartet-In-Residence Brooklyn Rider.

$50,000

//////////////////////////////////// WORLD PREMIERES //////////////////////////////////////

The Vail Dance Festival continues to extend strategic commissions each year, placing innovation and expansion at the heart of the Festival’s development. Artists benefit from enhanced creative focus in the Festival’s serene mountain setting. All testify enthusiastically to the close-knit “laboratory” structure that fosters high-caliber artistic experimentation and cross-pollination. These new works will be performed on NOW: Premieres. Performances are available to underwrite in part or in whole.

Internship Program

Each year, the Festival engages ambitious graduate and undergraduate students to serve as members of the Festival team, working as interns and assistants to support the key areas of the inner workings of the Festival. These experiences offer an immersive, behind-the-scenes opportunity to gain experience and knowledge of the arts and arts administration while working alongside some of the world’s greatest dancers, choreographers, and artistic leaders.

$25,000

Ambassador Program (underwriting is committed in full)

A program for 7th grade through high school age students. Festival Ambassadors act as stewards to the Festival working to spread the word and educate the community about Festival programming. Similar to the Internship Program, Ambassadors gain experience and knowledge of the arts and arts administration and participate in a community service project.

$15,000

Volunteer Party

Volunteers play a critical role through their assistance on the transportation team, ushering, and more. Each Festival, volunteers collectively donate 2,500 hours of their time. Help us celebrate their commitment contributing to the end of Festival party.

$3,000

Conversations On Dance Festival Forums Presented by Town of Vail (underwriting is committed in full)

Individual episode and series underwriting opportunities available for the popular podcast series “Conversations On Dance” hosted by Rebecca King Ferraro and Michael Sean Breeden. These in-depth discussions with Festival dancers, musicians, and choreographers take place in an intimate setting.
